NORTH  CYPRUS

THE PEARL OF THE MEDITERRANEAN

That is how Northern Cyprus has been described in the UK press, and knowing the country like we do, it is understandable that the hardened 'hacks' of Fleet Street are inspired to such prose.

Even in this age of mass-tourism, Northern Cyprus remains virtually undiscovered and gloriously under-populated. Considered to be the most beautiful part of the island, the north receives less than one tenth of the visitors that swarm to the better known Cypriot resorts of Paphos, Limassol and Larnaca. The stunning horseshoe-shaped harbour in Kyrenia (pictured left), is just one of the many unforgettable sights waiting to greet you in this unique holiday destination.

The natural geography of Northern Cyprus is such that you can spend the morning by the sea, topping up your tan, enjoy lunch in a mountain-top taverna, taking in the spectacular views and then spend a leisurely afternoon exploring some of the most incredible historical and cultural sites to be found in the whole Mediterranean.

Surprisingly, amongst all this serenity and natural beauty, Northern Cyprus has another, more lively side. The bustling resort town of Kyrenia, boasts over 300 restaurants and tavernas, serving a wide range of cuisine from traditional Mediterranean fare to gourmet international dishes. For the more adventurous, there is an excellent choice of activities, such as horse riding, paragliding, gokarting, quad-biking, jeep safaris, archery and a full range of water sports including PADI scuba diving, waterskiing and windsurfing. The wonderful thing is that in Northern Cyprus, these activities blend in with their surroundings rather than overwhelm them.

The sheer beauty of the countryside, the natural friendliness of the people and the most pleasing climate in the Mediterranean combine to make Northern Cyprus a truly unique holiday experience, and one that will stay in your memory for many years to come.
